TIMEFORM VIEW: MRS BENSON just held Aiguillette at Kempton earlier in the month and those two look the most likely winners once again. Mrs Benson overcame a tricky draw that day and she has the services of Hollie Doyle today so is marginally preferred of the pair. Itmakesyouthink also scored over the 7f at Kempton that evening and will be a threat here.

She showed her best form to date on polytrack two starts back so is chanced returning to the surface in a very uncompetitive race. Essgee Nics has been running creditably on turf and has solid each-way claims. Yagood has been contesting stronger races than this and has dropped 15 lb in three runs and merits consideration.

TIMEFORM VIEW: THE PERFECT CROWN looked a progressive colt on polytrack before he disappointed on soft ground in Ireland last month. Returning to this surface, he should be able to continue his progression. Shine So Bright will be a formidable opponent after acquitting himself well in pattern company this year. Raucous has a bit to find but goes well here and won't be far away.

TIMEFORM VIEW: AUSTRALIS has been contesting competitive handicaps all summer and his second in the Northumberland Plate stands out markedly in this much weaker event. so he should take all the beating as he returns to an artificial surface. Pleasure Garden is a typical improver at these trips for this yard and can't be discounted. Caledonian Crusade may also improve more to get involved in the finish.
