ATR VERDICT: BELMONT AVENUE only just failed to make a winning debut at Cork 10 days ago and the son of Zoffany should be very hard to beat with that experience now under his belt. My Minervina has a similar profile to the selection and she is an obvious threat, while Snap Chap and Hector De Maris are others with valid form claims. Santa Barbara is an eye-catching newcomer, being a half-sister to the multiple Group 1 winner Iridessa, while Bamboo Bay and Bonte Moi also merit market inspections.

Top Tip: BELMONT AVENUE (5)
Watch out for: MY MINERVINA (17)

ATR VERDICT: HUDDLE UP took a huge step forward from his racecourse debut here when successful at Cork last month and could continue on the upwards curve this autumn giving his liking for soft ground. Willie McCreery's charge can put his experience to good use against the well-bred Ones Are Wild, who is related to a couple of precocious types and represents a powerful yard. Belle Image was a 33-1 third here a fortnight ago and is fancied to build on that.

ATR VERDICT: BROSNA EMPRESS has stepped forward with each start in her career and went very close to gaining her first success when second at Cork last week. The handicapper only raised her 1lb for that effort and Jessica Harrington's filly boasts strong credentials in her bid to go one better. Dreams Delivered made a winning start to life in nurseries when scoring at Fairyhouse on Monday and he is expected to be in the mix along with Barretstown, who went close to shedding the maiden tag at Down Royal earlier in the month.

ATR VERDICT: SOUL SEEKER did well when making the podium in both outings last autumn and ran with plenty of credit when fifth on his reappearance at Navan last month. That will have blown away the cobwebs and the well-bred son of Oasis Dream could be the answer here. Stalingrad did little wrong when rattling the crossbar on debut and is likely to be thereabouts, while the improving Midnight Fire also makes appeal following his recent Cork second. More experienced trio, Glow Worm, Laurel Grove and Soineanta also enter calculations in a competitive event.

ATR VERDICT: Aidan O'Brien has won the last nine runnings of this contest and he fires three bullets at today's race, with HIGH DEFINITION fancied to build on his impressive course-and-distance debut success and land the spoils. Green and last at halfway, there was much to like about the way he powered home to win a decent-looking maiden here last month and he will no doubt have learnt plenty from that experience. Reve De Vol had a number of these behind when third in a Leopardstown Group 2 two weeks ago and he is likely to be in the shake-up again, while Monaasib has every chance if getting home on his first start beyond 7f.

ATR VERDICT: FOREVER IN DREAMS failed to fire in the Sprint Cup last time but prior to that she was only half a length behind the winner when third in the Group 3 Phoenix Stakes over C&D. Earlier in the season the four-year-old only found Speak In Colours a head too good in a Group 2, also over this track and trip, and it would be no surprise to see her play a leading role today. Summerghand also struggled at Haydock but he was not disgraced on that occasion and he could prove to be the main threat to the selection. Others to consider are Ventura Rebel and Urban Beat.

ATR VERDICT: FULL MOON MAGIC returned to form when second at Killarney over further last month for Joseph O'Brien and could take a bit of stopping here now dropped to her preferred distance. This progressive four-year-old won't mind whichever way the ground turns and might prove too strong for Peregrine Run, who fell over fences six days ago at Listowel and could restore his confidence with a sound run now on the level. Place Des Vosges may prove best of the remainder.

ATR VERDICT: CARRYTHEONE was unfortunate on his handicap debut when clipping heels and going through the rail over C&D last month. He remains open to significant improvement based on his maiden success the time before and can continue his stable's excellent run of form. Dance Jupiter can enter the reckoning following his second at Galway earlier in the month, while the hat-trick seeking Khafaaq and Mudlahhim, who finished first and second respectively at Tipperary earlier in the month, are others worthy of consideration.
