TIMEFORM VIEW: HUDDLE UP scored in good style at Cork last month so is taken to follow up at the chief expense of Belle Image who posted an excellent third here with the promise of more to come. Ones Are Wild, Rosie Bassett and Kind Power all rate as interesting newcomers though so a positive market move for any of the trio would put a slightly different slant on things.

Notes:

TIMEFORM VIEW: A fascinating renewal of this Group 2 but HIGH DEFINITION looked a colt destined for the top when showing a fine turn of foot to make a winning debut here so is impossible to oppose. Aidan O'Brien is also represented by Brazil in his bid to win this for the 10th year running and he rates the chief threat after coming good in blinkers last time. Wuqood is a good prospect and pick of the rest.

TIMEFORM VIEW: DANCE JUPITER got the better of a smart type on his second outing last season and would have made a comfortable winning return (also debut for Joseph O'Brien) had his effort started sooner at Galway recently, so he's taken to prove better than a mark of 92 on his first go in handicaps. Carrytheone, who ran out last time, is a big danger based on his previous win and In from The Cold is respected.
