TIMEFORM VIEW: HAMMERSMITH bounced back to his best when runner-up at Wexford 3 weeks ago, and this looks a good opportunity to go one better. Kapard is bred for the job, so it will be interesting to see how she holds up in the betting, while Wojood is entitled to build on his debut third at Clonmel.

TIMEFORM VIEW: WOODBROOK BOY improved over fences this summer and shaped as if back in form last time so, while he's almost certainly better in that discipline, he's still worth chancing from a significantly lower hurdling mark, particularly as serious opposition looks thin on the ground. Exit To The West has won a point since last seen under Rules, so he's another one to consider for a shrewd yard.

TIMEFORM VIEW: Gordon Elliott looks to hold a very strong hand with impressive last-time-out winners WESEEKHIMHERE and Mars Harper. Both won with a fair amount to spare, but the former achieved slightly more in the process so is marginally preferred. Camp David's opening run was full of promise and he is respected.
