ATR VERDICT: VAN GOGH clearly sets the standard having only found one too good in the Group 2 Juvenile Stakes at Leopardstown earlier in the month and that was not his first good effort in Group company. Aidan O'Brien's colt has to be given the utmost respect now that he has his sights lowered. Colour Sergeant is a consistent performer and he should be in the mix once again. National Ballet is out of a full-sister to the Group 1 winner Maybe, who is the dam of Saxon Warrior (also by Deep Impact), and he should not be underestimated despite his lack of race experience. Others to consider are Rince Beo and Wisteria Girl.

ATR VERDICT: NO SPEAK ALEXANDER wasn't beaten far by Fev Rover in a French Group 2 last month and followed up on that when a narrow second behind Monday (declared at Newmarket Friday) at Leopardstown 15 days ago. Jessica Harrington's filly handles varying ground and has the most solid profile in this contest. Thinking Of You impressed when making a winning debut at Limerick despite missing the start, while Aunty Bridy was far from disgraced in Group 1 company here recently.

Top Tip: NO SPEAK ALEXANDER (8)

ATR VERDICT: A STEP TOO FAR has been in fine form this summer and made it five victories in a row when getting the better of the reopposing Goodnight Girl (second) at Cork. Kieran Cotter's thriving four-year-old is just 3lb higher now and could continue her excellent winning streak with first-time cheekpieces applied. Stablemate Inflection Point was only beaten a short head last time and strengthens the handler's grasp on this contest, while Blairmayne rattled the crossbar over 6f here earlier this month. Denis Hogan's pair of Breakfast Club and Boughtinthedark also make plenty of appeal, the former a winner on debut for his trainer at Navan recently.

ATR VERDICT: EQUILOVE ran her best race when finishing second at Naas earlier in the month, with Virtual Hug back in third, and Jessica Harrington's filly remains on the same mark as she attempts to go one better on this occasion. The aforementioned Virtual Hug warrants respect for that effort and he has more to offer along with Dearg Jazz, who is expected to improve now switched to this company, and Helvic Princess.

ATR VERDICT: SIMPLY A BREEZE was disappointing in a Group 3 at Gowran last time, but she had previously run a cracker to be fourth in the same grade here, with a subsequent Listed winner behind her. Johnny Feane's charge could find this company a lot easier and she is taken to strike. Unknown Pleasures ran a solid enough race behind Ennistymon on her reappearance in June and is interesting, while Secret Pulse went close at Cork earlier this month and could be a player. Salsa is a possible contender back at the same venue that saw her go close in June.

ATR VERDICT: ORDER OF AUSTRALIA has just a Dundalk triumph to his name, but it is his performances before that that make him the one to beat here. Aidan O'Brien's colt's comeback third to classy stable companion Tiger Moth earned him a shot at a couple of Classics and he held his own by finishing fourth in the Irish Derby and seventh in the Prix du Jockey Club. Sea The Lion and Mirann are more than useful but shouldn't be up to successfully conceding weight to the exciting Ballydoyle representative.

ATR VERDICT: Kastasa slammed 2018 winner Cypress Creek in this event 12 months ago but after returning with a Gowran triumph, she then had to settle for third in the Stanerra Stakes, with Traisha just ahead of her. In any case, giving 7lb to DAWN PATROL may prove beyond both fillies because the Aidan O'Brien-trained son of Galileo made the frame in the Irish Derby in the summer. He also ran well in another Classic when sixth in the Doncaster Leger and, as long as he stays, could be a class above these.

Long Handicap: Overtake 8 - 1

ATR VERDICT: SURE CERT hadn't shown much in three starts in maiden company, but the switch to a handicap sparked Thomas Foley's charge into life at Fairyhouse six days ago as she virtually made all off a mark of 68. A 6lb rise seems fair and the four-year-old can double her career tally. Everyhouronthehour was successful at Gowran Park last weekend and Sam Ewing's claim negotiates part of a 5lb rise for that, while the consistent Lady Savanah is also taken seriously.
