ATR VERDICT: MAYAAS has shown more than enough potential in four career starts to suggest that he can find a race soon and has been presented with a perfect opening here by William Haggas. Behind the progressive Ataser in a couple of nursery contests recently, the 88-rated colt has Ryan Moore on board for the first time and makes the most appeal here. Party Rebel shaped with promise when fourth on debut at Catterick recently, while Bois De Norton took a step forward from his debut when third at Leicester earlier this month.

ATR VERDICT: Catherine's Girl has only gone up 3lb for a recent C&D success and deserves plenty of respect, while The Queens Ladies was successful at Chelmsford earlier this month despite racing from a poor draw and could have more to offer. Umafika shaped better than the bare result suggested at Beverley last time, but this can go the way of Phil Makin's AVIOR STAR. Second at Redcar on Wednesday, the Requinto colt should appreciate this drop to 5f under Paul Mulrennan.

ATR VERDICT: Fashion Advice beat the now 111-rated Keep Busy at Catterick 12 months ago and looked to need her reappearance here in July. She is undoubtedly well handicapped off 75 and would be interesting if the rain arrived in Scotland over the weekend. Eeh Bah Gum remains on a tempting mark but probably wants faster ground than this, and the door might be open for Richard Fahey's POWERALLIED. Fourth in a blanket finish at Chester two weeks ago, the seven-year-old is a C&D winner and should feel more at home over 5f.

Top Tip: POWERALLIED (6)

Watch out for: FASHION ADVICE (12)

ATR VERDICT: Mansfield ended a drought that stretched back to May of last year when knuckling down well to break his all-weather duck at Wolverhampton last week. A 4lb rise doesn't seem unduly harsh, but perhaps INDIAN PURSUIT can register a well-deserved success. John Quinn's sprinter hit the crossbar three times in a row, including twice here, and his latest fourth at Bath still suggested he can strike off his current mark. Musselburgh regular Northern Society and Beverley runner-up Rangefield Express can't be ruled out either.

ATR VERDICT: Freyja landed a Hamilton handicap as she liked last week, but that four-runner contest may not have taken a great deal of winning and she could be found out under her penalty. LIGHTS ON didn't taste competitive action until August but she has quickly made up for lost time, building on her debut second when going one better at Newcastle, and an initial figure of 80 should be workable. Nirodha arrives at the top of her game, as does Dawaaween.

Long Handicap: Lucky Violet 8 - 1

ATR VERDICT: Donnelly's Rainbow proved his emphatic C&D victory was no fluke when finding only a fellow penalised runner too good at Ayr. He is clearly in fine fettle, but is up another 4lb so is passed over in favour of TRUE BELIEVER. Mark Johnston's filly is still a maiden but went within a neck of success off 1lb higher on her Doncaster reappearance, and is fancied to return to that sort of form. Merricourt, Ghayyar and Tommy G also merits respect in a tricky heat.

Long Handicap: Exchequer 8 - 5, Let Right Be Done 8 - 1

ATR VERDICT: Exchequer ran as though the step up to this trip would suit when finishing fast for second over 7f here last time, though his recent efforts over a mile have not been great, although they have come at Hamilton's stiff track. He has to be considered, but MI CAPRICO returned from nine months off the track to take third over course and distance earlier this month and Keith Dalgleish's charge could strike off the same mark. It Had To Be You ran well in a pair of novice races at Chelmsford for William Haggas and is interesting on his handicap debut on his first start for Jedd O'Keefe.

Top Tip: MI CAPRICO (7)

ATR VERDICT: GOOD VIEW looked a stayer going places when winning with ease at Pontefract and David O'Meara's charge could follow up despite a 6lb hike. Ben Lilly has won back-to-back races over this trip and has claims despite being 10lb higher than the first of those successes, while Roman's Empress struck over shorter here last time, with Spycracker second, and has gone well over this distance in the past. Hamilton second Araka Li completes the shortlist in a trappy contest.

Top Tip: GOOD VIEW (1)
