ATR VERDICT: KILLULTAGH BELLA was the choice of Patrick Mullins ahead of stable companion and subsequent dual winner Dysart Diamond, and was sent off 5/2 second favourite, when she was a well-beaten sixth in a heavy ground bumper at Punchestown in mid-winter. Now sent hurdling on better ground and with a hood fitted for the first time, the Presenting mare is a hopeful choice to leave that first run behind her. Karen's Gift beat a useful type in a point-to-point in early 2019 but might need this outing having been off since then. More current form is represented by Tramore bumper winner Red Iron and Call The Fairies, an encouraging fourth on hurdling debut at Ballinrobe earlier in the month. Assara is related to a couple of useful jumpers and may come forward from a fair debut effort last month.

Top Tip: KILLULTAGH BELLA (11)
