ATR VERDICT: CHEAD SOLAS has long been regarded as a chasing prospect and has the scope to do well at this game. A bumper winner at this track a couple of years ago, he picked up a maiden hurdle over this trip at Cork in July and was taken out of his intended chasing debut at Wexford because of soft ground. A sounder surface here should be suitable. So many of Eagle Moon's stable companions improve for going over a fence that the Bellewstown maiden hurdle winner has to be strongly considered. Theatre World has handicap chase experience but has been off since the spring, while point-to-point winner Enjoy D'allen ran okay on chase debut behind the useful Doctor Duffy. The Shunter and Soldiers Hill are another couple of maiden hurdle winners to bear in mind.
