ATR VERDICT: MICKYDEE shaped with plenty of promise when third over C&D on his introduction and is expected to come on for that outing and take closer order. Set Point should be all the wiser for the experience gained when fourth on debut at Sandown and is the one expected to put up most resistance, though big runs from No Day Never and Colden's Passion would also come as no surprise.

Top Tip: MICKYDEE (7)

ATR VERDICT: MOKTASAAB shaped with an abundance of promise when fourth on debut at Doncaster and is entitled to build on that now he has the benefit of a run under his belt. Diamond Bay took a step in the right direction when third at Bath and could play a supporting role, though the main dangers may come in the shape of the newcomers, with Boltaway, The Rosstafarian and Qalansia all meriting market checks.

ATR VERDICT: ENSYAABY is entitled to come on for his initial outing over this trip at Newbury last month and should be tough to beat with the benefit of the run behind him. Billy Mill kept on into fourth over 6f at the same venue on debut and shaped like this additional furlong could be a source of immediate improvement. Newcomers Free Will and Real Dude would be interesting too if attracting market support.

ATR VERDICT: FUNDAMENTAL displayed plenty of promise when third to a pair of rivals with previous experience on debut at Yarmouth. With a run now under his belt, the son of Dark Angel should be very hard to beat. Champagne Piaff could give him plenty to think about having finished fourth to subsequent Group 3 winner La Barrosa on his debut at Ascot. The third from that contest has also won since and Gary Moore's gelding looks to have a bright future. Escape cost 77,000gns as a yearling and any market support for him would have to be noted.

Top Tip: FUNDAMENTAL (3)

ATR VERDICT: APOLLO ONE has been highly tried since making a successful debut at Newmarket, and he acquitted himself well when filling third place in the Solario. The son of Equiano did not match that level of form in a Listed race at Doncaster subsequently but he will appreciate this ease in grade. Dark Shift created a big impression when winning easily on his introduction at Ascot and should be capable of making his mark at this level. Whenthedealinsdone needs to improve but he will have more to offer. Rivers Lad could be out of his depth.

ATR VERDICT: MAY REMAIN was only denied by a neck in a competitive contest at Ascot and that form was boosted when the winner hit the crossbar on his next outing. George Baker's gelding remains on a workable mark and he gets the nod. Whelans Way was not far behind the selection last time and it would be no surprise to see him in the mix, while Eye Of The Water and Gambon are others to note.

ATR VERDICT: MINI MILK made a winning reappearance at Kempton last week and is a tasty proposition turned out quickly under a 5lb penalty. That was a pleasing start to life in the care of Brian Meehan and the drop back from 1m isn't a worry. Diamond Cottage has been a regular at the business end recently and was only denied by a head over 6f here. She has also placed over track and trip this season and has to be respected. Recuerdame wasn't beaten far in his quest for a hat-trick and the all-weather regular is interesting switching to turf.

ATR VERDICT: TRUSTY RUSTY almost caused a surprise when attempting to make all at Lingfield, picking up the silver medal. Ron Harris' filly was only denied by a nose and should give a bold sight once again from the front in a first-time hood. Junvieve was a little further back in third on that occasion and is respected for a top team, while Tawaafiq has won two of his last three and makes plenty of appeal stepping up from 6f.
