ATR VERDICT: Point winner BRAVO BUDDY set the standard here on the back of two podium finishes so far under Rules and Ian Williams' four-year-old could make it third time lucky in this sphere. He is sure to improve for jumping obstacles in time, but has shown enough ability to suggest he can land a race of this nature for now. Rock The House was a respectable sixth at this venue on his first appearance in February and could be an improver for local handler Olly Murphy. Captain Morgs requires serious consideration on debut, with the 55,000-euros buy saddled by Nicky Henderson, while Greatest Star and Roscoe Tara are other newcomers to note.

Top Tip: BRAVO BUDDY (1)

Watch out for: CAPTAIN MORGS (2)
