ATR VERDICT: The veteran COUNT OF CARABASS tends to up his game from September onwards and can strike here. Last month he finished a close fourth at Limerick and then he was caught close home when beaten a neck on heavy ground at the same track earlier this month. Five of his six career victories have come in autumn months. Sagittarius Rising has finished third in his last couple of handicaps. Colin Keane has been booked and his mount has a victory on testing ground from Gowran Park in his locker. He has to rate a threat. Ben Kennedy rode his first winner on Swiss Army Officer at Cork last week and the pair are reunited again. They have prospects of following up off 5lb higher. The form of Born Invincible's Limerick success is working out well. He wasn't at his best when next seen in the Curragh but could bounce back.

Top Tip: COUNT OF CARABASS (2)

Watch out for: SAGITTARIUS RISING (3)
