TIMEFORM VIEW: This looks to be between DYAMI and Frozen Ocean with slight preference for George Baker's colt. He's been plying his trade in French maidens and running creditably and will perhaps appreciate the return to a sounder surface after running below form on heavy ground at St Cloud. Frozen Ocean did little wrong at Chelmsford last time and there won't be much between them.

TIMEFORM VIEW: IMPERIUM hasn't had much racing but he's run remarkably consistently when he has made it to the racecourse since getting a handicap mark and can gain a third career success here. Indigo Times is searching for a hat-trick and it'd be dangerous to dismiss his attempt given his current form on polytrack. Really Super won well at Chelmsford last month and won't be far away.

TIMEFORM VIEW: LUNCIES looked a progressive middle-distance handicapper when winning over a furlong shorter here last month. He can be forgiven a poor run in a very deep Newmarket handicap since and get back on track tonight. Almighwar looks a colt who will improve for his top yard if he's fully fit after over 3 months off. Dublin Pharaoh is progressing well and can't be dismissed either.

With the promise of better to come, she can make her first start in handicaps a winning one.
