ATR VERDICT: KNIGHT COMMANDER arrives on a hat-trick and is difficult to get away from in his present mood. Katie Powell got on well with the seven-year-old when the pair teamed up for success at Exeter last week and, versatile in regards to trip, he ticks plenty of boxes. Level Of Intensity performed well for the silver medal latest and a press of the repeat button will see him go close again. Christopher Robin also warrants respect.

ATR VERDICT: CELESTIAL FORCE has to concede plenty of weight to his rivals, but the son of Sea The Stars, a nice type on the Flat, looks capable of doing so on what he's shown at Newton Abbot and Wincanton. Paul Nicholls' horses are flying and the master handler has found his charge another good opening under a top 5lb claimer in Bryan Carver, who won the opening race on this card 12 months ago. Caddyhill and Isolate are the main dangers.

ATR VERDICT: Kim Bailey has his string in good form and DRUMREAGH is nicely positioned towards the foot of the handicap after a career-best effort over hurdles at Uttoxeter last time. Second on that occasion when improving for the step back up in distance and fitting of a first-time tongue-tie, the Court Cave mare makes plenty of appeal. Bomber's Moon and Kabrit look the main threats.

ATR VERDICT: FRIEND OR FOE arrived from France with quite a tall reputation but after a promising beginning to his UK career, he was forced on to the sidelines for 18 months. It doesn't seem to have affected him, though, because he returned with a very encouraging second at Chepstow and should be able to build on it. Get Back Get Back found only one too good when attempting to supplement a Plumpton triumph at Wincanton, with Andaleep hot on his heels, and both should be classed as dangers.

ATR VERDICT: BATHIVA has left David Dennis to join the Fergal O'Brien team since his last appearance, which resulted in an impressive victory over C&D back in the spring. He reappears on a 10lb higher rating, but the runner-up won well last week so the form is strong. Demon D'Aunou's recent Kempton fourth seemed to underline the fact that he needs further than this trip so it could be left to Court Royale and Shut The Box to give the selection most to do.

Long Handicap: Golden Poet 9 - 12, No No Cardinal 9 - 9

ATR VERDICT: From The Heart struck over C&D last winter and managed to get his head in front for the first time since on his latest appearance at Chepstow. A 5lb hike doesn't seem unduly harsh, but the one who could be well treated is EARTH LEADER. The seven-year-old racked up a six-timer between the flags prior to finishing a well-beaten second in a Wincanton hunter chase. He has since joined Harry Fry, and a mark of 117 could really be lenient. Golden Poet and Dido also warrant some consideration.

ATR VERDICT: After making it second-time lucky in a point-to-point in March, Karlie was snapped up by Michael Scudamore for 42,000 pounds, while Trump Lady also arrives with a victory between the flags to her name. Brave Bairn makes some appeal on breeding, as does Becky The Boo, but MY KEEPSAKE is a half-sister to a couple of winning hurdlers and a gelding who managed to win a bumper for the Hobbs stable, and she gets the nod.
