TIMEFORM VIEW: This looks a useful handicap and MILLE SUSSURRI is chanced to open his account on his return. This longer trip is sure to suit for his handicap debut and there is a strong suspicion he's on a good mark. Sastruga opened his account for his new yard in a C&D contest earlier this month and has good claims again up 7 lb. Silent Assistant is another to consider.

Jockey Colours: Dark blue and light blue (quartered), emerald green sleeves and cap Timeform says: Ran well despite not being ideally placed in a modestly-run affair on reappearance at Fontwell earlier this month. He remains unexposed and looks a leading player here from just a 2 lb higher mark. ★★★★★ (Forecast 4.00)					Notes:
7		080-	PANATOS (FR) 246 b g Denon - Prairie scilla	5 10 - 6	Page Fuller Mrs Dunn	93
Jockey Colours: Black, pink inverted triangle and armlets Timeform says: Modest stayer on Flat who has been soundly beaten in 3 starts over hurdles but should make more of a splash in handicaps. Interesting to see what the market makes of him on return. ★★☆☆☆ (Forecast 34.00)					Notes:

TIMEFORM VIEW: Hard to rule out any of these, but preference is for KERB LINE, who posted a solid runner-up effort on his return at Fontwell earlier this month despite not being ideally placed in a modestly-run affair. He should come on from that and can gain his first victory. Jack Valentine had a bit in hand when scoring at Exeter in March so is feared most on his handicap bow, ahead of Nearly Famous.

TIMEFORM VIEW: JURYS OUT was a shade underwhelming over fences at Hereford in March, yet he had been shaping up well prior to unseating late on at that venue the time before. He returns with his yard having made a good start to the campaign and is worth siding with to get back on the up. Crossley Tender and Clondaw Rigger head up the dangers, ahead of Ballybreen.
