TIMEFORM VIEW: NO NO MAESTRO could easily have more to offer now moving into handicap company for new trainer Fergal O'Brien and he gets the nod, with confidence increased should the market speak in his favour. Northern Poet and Sometimes Always are others who appeal as likely improvers in handicaps and head the dangers along with Pam Sly's Xcitations.

TIMEFORM VIEW: Lots with the potential to play a part here but DR SANDERSON arrives at the top of his game and with experience over fences so is taken to defy a 7 lb rise and follow up his ready Plumpton win. Nicky Henderson's chasing debutant Falco Blitz scored over hurdles here last term so is greatly respected, while Dorking Boy and Trincomalee are also worth considering with improvement in the pipeline.

TIMEFORM VIEW: IBLEO rarely stands much racing, but he was progressive over fences last season and, with the Venetia Williams team already up and running this season, a winning reappearance would come as no surprise. Capeland has more to offer as a handicapper and is feared most, ahead of Amoola Gold.

TIMEFORM VIEW: CAPTAIN MORGS was a warm order prior to his highly encouraging second in a bumper at Warwick a month ago and he has all the credentials to make a quality hurdler, so he's fancied to make a winning start in what is, admittedly, a competitive novice. Addis Ababa made a pleasing switch from the Flat to hurdling 8 months ago, so he could provide the sternest opposition.

TIMEFORM VIEW: None of these can be safely discounted. The unexposed Kid Commando is next best ahead of Malaya, who signed off last season with a decent effort here, while Sebastopol is also firmly in calculations.

and gets the nod ahead of Valtor, who is 2-3 at Ascot and resumes on a workable mark. Whatmore and the admirable Black Corton are others to consider.

TIMEFORM VIEW: ARTURUS is a close relation to Hurricane Fly and cost plenty as a store, so it's worth taking a chance that his top yard have him clued up enough to make a winning start in what could prove a hot race. Fellow newcomers Italian Spirit and San Giovanni also make some appeal on paper, so they're just two of several others with a chance.
