ATR VERDICT: FINANCIAL OUTCOME ran well on his return to action when second at Ffos Las earlier in the month and the seven-year-old is entitled to step forward with that outing under his belt. Tintern Theatre found everything happening too quick at the course last month so the step back up in trip, combined with a slower tempo, is likely to aid his cause, while others to note include Cash To Ash and Grange Ranger.

Top Tip: FINANCIAL OUTCOME (4)

ATR VERDICT: ASHTOWN LAD left behind a disappointing hurdling debut at Doncaster in January when runner-up on his first run of the season over C&D earlier in the month. The six-year-old is entitled to step forward from that performance and can get the better of Brief Ambition, who placed on his first attempt over timber at Uttoxeter having shown some decent form in bumpers. Moon King can step forward from his fourth at Kelso earlier in the month and is respected along with Kearney Hill.

Top Tip: ASHTOWN LAD (1)

ATR VERDICT: GUY improved considerably on what he achieved over hurdles when running away with a novices' handicap chase at Huntingdon and a 12lb rise might not be enough to stop the five-year-old from striking again. Minella For Me performed well for second on his return at Warwick and is expected to be in the mix along with Thomas Todd, who ended last season with success at Market Rasen.

Top Tip: GUY (3)

ATR VERDICT: VERDANA BLUE is the class act in the field here with a rating of 155 and is fancied to claim a first victory since April 2019 for Nicky Henderson. The eight-year-old was a little disappointing in Listed company at Kempton two weeks ago, but she is back against her own sex now and should be sharper for that hurdling return after a positive summer campaign on the Flat. Born In Borris should have come on for her Chepstow reappearance earlier this month and remains open to much improvement, while Whitehotchillifili was deemed good enough to run in the Mares' Novices' Hurdle at Cheltenham in March and makes some appeal.

Top Tip: VERDANA BLUE (6)

ATR VERDICT: Lisnagar Oscar caused a 50-1 shock in the Stayers' Hurdle to put Rebecca Curtis back on the map in March and could enjoy another successful campaign for the Newport-based handler. He is likely to have that event on his agenda again, though, and might be trained to peak during the spring rather than autumn. Copperhead fell in the RSA at Cheltenham and could be happier back over hurdles for now, especially if this contest turns into a stamina test, but it would also suit Nigel Twiston-Davies' WHOLESTONE. Second in this race in 2017, the nine-year-old is rated 151 in this format and goes well fresh, boasting form figures of 1411 in the last four seasons on his first outing.

ATR VERDICT: Cyrname is 13lb and upwards ahead of these rivals on official figures and obviously demands respect, but he has yet to win beyond 2m5f and has questions to answer going left-handed, so it might be worth taking him on. In Ballyoptic (2019) and Definitely Red (2018) we have the last two winners of this race and they both merit consideration, while Sam Spinner is three from three over fences and must enter calculations. However, with Kim Bailey continuing to fire in the winners, his VINNDICATION gets the vote. He has shown in the past that he can compete at the highest level, beaten just over three lengths in the 2019 Scilly Isles, and conditions look perfect for him this afternoon. His astute handler regards him as a future Gold Cup contender so there will be some long faces amongst the camp if he doesn't run a massive race here.

ATR VERDICT: Right at the foot of the weights, EAGLEHILL could be the answer here. Olly Murphy's inmate has a progressive profile and, although 7lb higher than when successful on his latest start at Hereford in March, he potentially remains well handicapped. Arrivederci's profile isn't too dissimilar and he warrants plenty of respect entering handicap company for the first time on the back of a maiden win at Wincanton in January. Ben Pauling's pair of Imperial Knight and Oistrakh Le Noir are others to watch out for.
