ATR VERDICT: Disco Boots has shaped encouragingly in both starts thus far, including when a staying-on second over 7f here on Monday, and she sets the standard, while Absolutely and So Fascinating are interesting newcomers representing Donnacha O'Brien and Joseph O'Brien respectively. However, it could be their father, Aidan, who takes this race courtesy of FRILL. Her full-sister Zagitova won over this trip as a juvenile, as well as placing in Group 2 company over 7f, and it will be disappointing if the 900,000gns purchase doesn't run a big race on debut.

Top Tip: FRILL (6)

ATR VERDICT: Charmed (84) and Shelly Banks (80) will go very close if running up their ratings, especially the latter who is lining up in receipt of 5lb from the boys. There are two other very interesting fillies in the race, though, as Miramis has been highly tried at the track so far, finishing sixth in the Group 2 Debutante on her introduction and fifth in the Group 3 Anglesey last time, and MONTEGO BAY shaped with enough promise on debut at Dundalk for Aidan O'Brien to suggest she can win a race like this before the end of the year.

ATR VERDICT: Aidan O'Brien is represented by three contenders in a competitive maiden. Cleveland has shown potential in two starts so far, although Interpretation is related to some smart types and might just be more forward than Lord Of The Manor, who is a brother to Group 2 winner Cliffs Of Moher. However, KAILASH was a close third at Cork last month, finishing his race well, and would be tough to stop if running to his official rating of 88 for Dermot Weld.

ATR VERDICT: MENAGERIE has displayed promise in all five of her previous outings and her last two performances suggest that the daughter of Fastnet Rock is arguably the one to beat today. Charlie Bassett, who finished fifth in a decent event at Leopardstown last time, hit the crossbar twice in September and he could prove to be the main threat to the selection. Others to note are Herculaneum and Vivandiere.

ATR VERDICT: The hat-trick seeking Final Endeavour got the better of the useful Der Mc (second) last time and has relished the testing conditions when thriving over further of late. His stamina makes him a player in the forecast ground, while Tony Martin's pair of Dundory and Jungle Jungle both placed on their latest outings and warrant respect. However, preference is for the consistency of NEWGIRLINTOWN, a three-time winner this season and only once outside of the top three. She won't mind conditions and her apprentice jockey removes a handy 10lb as she bids to defy a career-high mark.

ATR VERDICT: Lady Dahlia posted a solid run in defeat when third over this trip at Gowran last month and should be thereabouts with a repeat performance, though narrow preference is for Dermot Weld inmate CIEL D'AFRIQUE, who rattled the crossbar over 1m4f at Galway last time and could feasibly go one better now sporting first-time cheekpieces. Autumn Evening and Belper Rose are others worth considering for the minor money.

ATR VERDICT: PRETTY BOY FLOYD was an easy winner here on Monday, building on his C&D triumph last month for Sarah Dawson, and could take the beating once more despite carrying a 6lb penalty. The five-year-old beat a few of these earlier in the week and could have too much for Beckwith Place, who likes testing ground and has been shaping well in defeat here lately. Ducky Mallon returned to form when third at Leopardstown recently and is also respected.

Top Tip: PRETTY BOY FLOYD (5)
Watch out for: BECKWITH PLACE (1)
