ATR VERDICT: Casa Comigo has been in good form on all-weather surfaces in Britain and can be competitive on his first start for Leanne Breen, who is more than adept at winning with horses that switch to her. Casa Comigo has four victories from Lingfield and one at Kempton in his locker (all over approximately two miles, though). Joey Sheridan's 5lb claim puts PAK ARMY on an attractive mark. He races off 67 which was his last winning mark at Limerick in September. He didn't run badly off 72 when sixth, in a better race, over course and distance last month. He was just over a length behind the fourth horse who came out and spreadeagled the field in a maiden at this track on Monday. Storm Steps is chasing a course and distance hat-trick. A 3lb rise doesn't look excessive, so he ought to be on the premises. Dame Rapide has won three of her last four on the Polytrack and gets on well with 7lb claimer Siobhan Rutledge. An 8lb rise makes life trickier up in class, but she is an in-form mare worthy of respect. Ivy Avenue makes her all-weather debut after a recent third at the Curragh and could show up well.

Top Tip: PAK ARMY (4)
