TIMEFORM VIEW: TONKINESE ran creditably in a handicap from a mark in the mid-80s here last time and is probably the one to beat now dropping into a claimer. Itsalonglongroad edged out Royal Admiral in a similar event here earlier in the month and they could be the pair to give Joseph O'Brien's charge most to think about.

Notes:

TIMEFORM VIEW: NARYNKOL, who hasn't been with Charles Byrnes for long, is well handicapped on the form he showed at this venue earlier in the year so might be worth siding with under a rider who is good value for his 7 lb claim. Storm Steps and Dame Rapide have been in excellent form here of late and head the dangers.

Notes:

TIMEFORM VIEW: STATELY HOME has improved with each run and was just collared late on his debut for this stable over C&D last time, so he's fancied to go one better under a similarly positive ride. Orchid Gardens should benefit from a drop in trip and has Sam Ewing taking a handy 7 lb off, so he's regarded as the main danger ahead of Mosala.

TIMEFORM VIEW: An open handicap but MURAAHIN is the one to focus on as he has caught the eye since joining Gavin Cromwell and now looks ready to take a big step forward after his promising sixth over C&D last week. Neyland is still without a win but arrives in good nick so is feared most, while top-weight Characteristic is weighted to have a say too.

TIMEFORM VIEW: A few in with a shout here but LANSING is taken to build on his excellent recent second over 7f here and open his account at the chief expense of another relatively unexposed 3-y-o in polytrack-debutante Amarantha. Philly's Hope appeals as the pick of the rest and a solid place prospect.

TIMEFORM VIEW: CATHERINE CHROI left the impression that she's getting the hang of things when a staying-on fourth over 6f here in first-time cheekpieces last week. She is a viable alternative to likely favourite Styledome, who is greatly respected despite a hefty rise in the weights following her decisive breakthrough success here. Cooper's Hawk and Vocal Gymnastics are each-way contenders.
