ATR VERDICT: POPMASTER accounted for a decent field when making a winning introduction over C&D last month and Ed Walker's Gutaifan colt is clearly the one to beat, despite having to carry 7lb penalty for that victory. Kath's Toyboy and Tigerhon both hit the crossbar on debut and they are obvious threats to the selection, while Camassia and Zenzero complete the shortlist.

Top Tip: POPMASTER (1)

Watch out for: KATH'S TOYBOY (10)

ATR VERDICT: FAUVETTE arrives here on the back of a pair of second-placed finishes in recent weeks and the daughter of Dark Angel has been found an ideal opportunity to go one better. Black Box also brings solid form to the table and she should be in the mix once again. Mjolnir, who is a stablemate of the selection, is the first foal out of a Listed-winning mare and he is a newcomer to note.

Top Tip: FAUVETTE (5)

Watch out for: BLACK BOX (4)

ATR VERDICT: Ilza'eem arguably sets the standard having finished second on his debut over C&D, and he is entitled to improve for it. That said, a chance can be taken with ROYAL FLEET, who lacks race experience but he is a half-brother to the 6f Group 3 winner Royal Crusade. Charlie Appleby took this 12 months ago and his subsequent Group 2 winner Zakouski scored in a division of the race the year before. Jaafel has solid form claims, while any market support for Neenee's Choice would have to be noted.

Top Tip: ROYAL FLEET (9)
Watch out for: ILZA'EEM (4)

ATR VERDICT: EVENING SONG has shown plenty in two novice auction races, including when winning readily over this trip at Chelmsford last time, and with the added help of a hood on her handicap debut, she might be able to complete the double. Fayathaan and Mariance also arrive in winning form and are respected, although the bigger threat might be Autumn Twilight, who struck on debut prior to being thrown in at the deep end at Newbury.

Top Tip: EVENING SONG (2)

ATR VERDICT: USS NIMITZ gets a tentative vote in what looks a fiercely competitive nursery. He has been promising and progressive in three starts thus far and might improve again for stepping up in trip. Dropped in distance and equipped with first-time blinkers, Hafez is expected to be prominently ridden and should give a good account. Tick Toch, Dream Chaser, Don't Look Back and The Nail Gunner are just a few more with claims.

Top Tip: USS NIMITZ (1)
Watch out for: HAFEZ (5)

ATR VERDICT: PRIZE FIGHTING has been knocking on the door recently and just 1lb higher than when a length second over C&D last time, he is likely to play a leading role. Tahitian Prince has shown enough in previous starts to suggest that he is capable of winning a race of this nature and he might improve for the application of cheekpieces. Capriolette, I'm Available and Lover's Moon are others to note.

Top Tip: PRIZE FIGHTING (6)

ATR VERDICT: WORLD TITLE, a three-time winner at two and a runner in some competitive handicaps earlier in the campaign, produced his best performance for some time when a silver medallist at Wolverhampton earlier this month and he can go one better off the same mark. Uzincso has won his last two appearances over C&D and is likely to be thereabouts at the business end. True Belief is interesting stepping up from 6f, while Risaaalat was a winner over 7f here and is respected despite a 7lb rise.

Top Tip: WORLD TITLE (6)
Watch out for: UZINC SO (5)

Long Handicap: Persuer 8 - 9

ATR VERDICT: NO NAY BELLA looked to have a bit in hand when keeping on strongly to score over C&D earlier this month and is backed to follow up off a 5lb higher mark. Big Country is capable of running well fresh and requires a market check, with Luke Morris taking over in the saddle on his first appearance since returning to Mick Appleby. Culture was twice a winner here before performing with real credit on his debut for Tom Ward in France and is another to consider.

Top Tip: NO NAY BELLA (7)
Watch out for: CULTURE (2)
