ATR VERDICT: ALTO VOLANTE could be the one to side with on debut. William Haggas' Kingman colt, who holds a Derby entry, is a half-brother to Queen's Vase winner Namibian and also Domino Darling, with that filly winning what became a red-hot Doncaster maiden on her own first appearance, a performance which propelled her towards the top of the ante-post Oaks market. Sir John Bowdler is another newcomer of note, while Mummy's Boy shaped like a step up in trip could suit when fifth over 7f at Kempton.

Top Tip: ALTO VOLANTE (1)

Watch out for: MUMMY'S BOY (6)
