ATR VERDICT: EMERALD FOX had been knocking on the door until getting her head in front here earlier in the month and the manner of that victory suggests the step up in trip may yield further progression. Lady Morpheus' recent efforts on the all-weather can see her enter the reckoning, having placed at both Kempton and Chelmsford. Mojambo and Gold Standard are best of the remainder.

Top Tip: EMERALD FOX (5)

Watch out for: LADY MORPHEUS (6)

ATR VERDICT: KRYPTOS gained a deserved success at Wolverhampton after hitting the crossbar on a number of occasions during the season and John Berry's gelding can follow up under a penalty. Yes My Boy was third in that contest and remains on the same rating, which makes him 5lb better off with the selection. Plantadream's recent consistency gives him every chance, despite him running off a career-high mark.

Top Tip: KRYPTOS (3)

ATR VERDICT: NEWYORKSTATEOFMIND has stepped forward since returning to the all-weather last month and the step back up to 6f, a trip at which he struck here on his penultimate outing, gives him an excellent chance again. Bowling Russian arrives having been running consistently well in France and he is of considerable interest in a first-time visor. Dazzling Des completes the shortlist.

Top Tip: NEWYORKSTATEOFMIND (4)

ATR VERDICT: UNCLE BERNIE pounced late to take advantage of a lenient mark when causing a bit of a surprise at Wolverhampton. The C&D winner was handed a 3lb rise, but apprentice Joshua Bryan takes over in the saddle to nullify that increase and he should be much more on the radar this time. Affair is only 2lb higher than when touched off over track and trip in the summer and has continued to run well since. Lyrica's Lion was second here earlier this month and has the assistance of Silvestre De Sousa once more, while Ballydoyle was third in that contest and is now tried in cheekpieces again.

Top Tip: UNCLE BERNIE (9)

Watch out for: AFFAIR (10)

ATR VERDICT: BEDFORD FLYER relished the switch to the all-weather when making all to land a comfortable four-length victory at Newcastle and there should be plenty more to come from Les Eyre's speedy youngster, despite an 11lb hike. That obviously makes life tougher, but he has all the attributes to be a consistent operator in this sphere. Prospect flopped at Catterick, but was a regular at the business end before that. Nelson Gay has some smart form in the book, the pick of it being a sixth in Newbury's Super Sprint and a four-length third on debut to Royal Ascot scorer The Lir Jet.

Top Tip: BEDFORD FLYER (1)

Watch out for: NELSON GAY (3)

ATR VERDICT: ALTO VOLANTE could be the one to side with on debut. William Haggas' Kingman colt, who holds a Derby entry, is a half-brother to Queen's Vase winner Namibian and also Domino Darling, with that filly winning what became a red-hot Doncaster maiden on her own first appearance, a performance which propelled her towards the top of the ante-post Oaks market. Sir John Bowdler is another newcomer of note, while Mummy's Boy shaped like a step up in trip could suit when fifth over 7f at Kempton.

Top Tip: ALTO VOLANTE (1)

ATR VERDICT: Simon & Ed Crisford are two from two with their juvenile runners on the all-weather at Lingfield thus far, so a chance is taken on their newcomer JACK OF TRADES, a Mastercraftsman gelding who is likely to know his job. Diamond Of Dubai also represents powerful connections on debut and it would come as no surprise to see him go close, while Wolverhampton fourth Sea Crossing looks best of the experienced runners.

ATR VERDICT: Black Medick has been running well at Wolverhampton and warrants respect returning to a venue where she has won in the past, while Sonnetina, Lunar Deity and Cristal Pallas Cat also hold claims. However, in a wide-open contest, a chance is taken on the unexposed BLUE DAWN. Ed Walker's charge has shaped encouragingly in each of her last three starts and may improve for the application of a hood.

Top Tip: BLUE DAWN (7)

Watch out for: BLACK MEDICK (6)
