ATR VERDICT: SOMETIMES ALWAYS went close to making a successful start in handicap company when runner-up at Ascot last month and the son of Presenting is capable of going one better, despite a 5lb rise for that effort. Rookie Trainer was probably a fortunate winner at Fontwell, but that was his first run of the season and he is entitled to come forward from it. Recent course winner Devour cannot be discounted either.

ATR VERDICT: Flat White will have learned plenty from her hurdling debut against her own sex when a promising second at Uttoxeter, and commands a great deal of respect now running against juveniles. However, she might have to play second fiddle to FIRST IMPRESSION, as he sets the standard on his two runs at the course and this represents a drop in class following his fifth in the Wensleydale. Ranco has had wind surgery since his jumping bow at Southwell and it might help him leave that form well behind.

ATR VERDICT: DOUKAROV improved for the switch back to fences for the first time in the UK when scoring at Taunton earlier in the month and there could be more to come off a 5lb higher rating. Exelerator Express shaped as though he would benefit from his first run of the season when getting tired at Sedgefield, while a wind operation might aid the cause of Funambule Sivola ahead of his chasing bow.

ATR VERDICT: All of these have claims but marginal preference is for THE MULCAIR, who accounted for a decent rival when winning impressively on his Rules debut over hurdles at Southwell a year ago. The six-year-old then disappointed in a Grade 2 at Cheltenham but something was clearly amiss with him on that occasion and he may benefit from a wind up in recent months. Geordie B is entitled to improve for his recent comeback run at Carlisle, while Born By The Sea should put his jumping experience to good use.

ATR VERDICT: The 133-rated SOARING GLORY was unfortunate to bump into an exciting prospect when trying to defy a penalty at Newbury last time and the son of Fame And Glory is the one they all have to beat. Gemirande failed to fire on his UK debut but he showed plenty of ability in France and it is far too soon to be writing him off. Rory And Me won two bumpers in 2019 and he should not be discounted.

ATR VERDICT: SMARTY WILD made a pleasing chasing debut when finishing third in a competitive contest at Ascot late last month and he has to be respected off a 2lb lower mark this afternoon. Ballyvic Boru returned to winning ways over this track and trip last time and he could prove to be the main threat to the selection, ahead of Some Reign.

ATR VERDICT: Miss Lamb won well on her debut on the all-weather at Newcastle in January and warrants respect now returning, but there could be a couple of point-to-point winners in here who prove too good for her in receipt of 7lb, namely Fashion Nova and THEDABBER. Both represent powerful connections and are expected to show up well, with narrow preference for the latter, who impressed when winning on her first and only start between the flags at Ballycahane in March.

ATR VERDICT: Chosen Port was bought for 115,000 pounds shortly after winning an Irish point in March and new connections will be expecting a big run on her NH debut, but ELECTRIC ANNIE might spoil the party. Her point-to-point form wouldn't be anywhere near as flashy, but she shaped with tons of promise when runner-up in a Taunton bumper and could prove tough to reel in if given another positive ride. Billams Legacy completes the shortlist representing the stable that won this race in 2014 and 2017.
