ATR VERDICT: AUSTRALIS was deemed good enough to run in the Cesarewitch at Newmarket last month and could capitalise on these much calmer waters for Roger Varian. The four-year-old was previously successful at this venue over a bit further, but has enough tactical speed to cope with this slight drop in distance. Cosmelli is more exposed but was in good form on the all-weather during the summer, finishing fourth in the Northumberland Plate at Newcastle in June. Ernesto has had a wind operation and could be worth a betting check.

Top Tip: AUSTRALIS (2)

Watch out for: COSMELLI (1)
