Long Handicap: Vazzy 8 - 3, Cornice 7 - 10

ATR VERDICT: Jessica Harrington was back to her roots with Neverushacon winning the cross-country at Punchestown on Tuesday. She's got two in the mix here, and another from the National Hunt brigade, Conor O'Dwyer, also has dual representation. The recently married Billy Lee is aboard Virtual Hug for O'Dwyer's wife Audrey, while the Rossmore House couple's son Charlie gets the spin on DREAM KATCHER. It could be worth taking an each-way chance on this fellow on all-weather debut. Dream Katcher is by first crop sire sensation Mehmas, and maybe he'll return a better horse off a two month break. Going up to a mile could also be helpful to the selection, and his rider's ten pound claim sees him with an attractive racing weight of eight stone five. Vazzy (a little out of the weights) is threatening to win a race sooner rather than later and he's respected. In truth though reference to the market will be all important. No less than five of these arrive fresh out of maiden company.

Top Tip: DREAM KATCHER (8)

Watch out for: VIRTUAL HUG (4)
