ATR VERDICT: RAVENSCAR had been threatening to strike for a while and duly obliged over C&D three weeks ago for Phil Kirby. A 4lb rise doesn't leave him overburdened, and the four-year-old could strike again granted another prominent ride. Rukwa beat a few of these when second over C&D last month and could go close again under Graham Lee, while Thawry seldom runs a bad race on the all-weather but remains 12lb above his last winning mark.

Top Tip: RAVENSCAR (5)

Watch out for: RUKWA (7)

8 (8)			PENNYMOOR b f Frankel - Penelopa	2 9 - 0	Non Runner J H M Gosden	-

ATR VERDICT: Castlebar has had three chances to open his account now without success and the fact that connections turn to first-time cheekpieces suggests that the gelding isn't entirely straightforward. Kondo Isami only found one too good on debut over C&D last month, though he was beaten far enough there, and perhaps this can go to BANDINELLI on his first outing for Charlie Appleby. A brother to Group 1 winner Old Persian, this trip will be a minimum for him given time and this looks a suitable opening for the Dubawi colt.

ATR VERDICT: Taravara is becoming expensive to follow but wasn't beaten far when third at Lingfield in October and wears blinkers now trying Tapeta for the first time. Counsel's dam won over this distance on the all-weather and he needs a betting check on debut for John Gosden, though it might be worth looking at the William Haggas-trained newcomer, FIREWORKS. An 850,000-euro yearling, the son of Kingman is a half-brother to three winners and his handler has an excellent record here with juveniles.

ATR VERDICT: GREAT COLACI arrives in good form having finished no worse than third on his last four starts at the track, winning twice. He is versatile in regards to trip and a 4lb rise for his latest C&D success might not be enough to halt him. Kentuckyconnection also boasts winning course form and is expected to be thereabouts judged on the pick of his turf form this year, while Roundel also makes some appeal.

Top Tip: GREAT COLACI (5)

ATR VERDICT: LOVE OF ZOFFANY wasn't winning out of turn at Wolverhampton last time following a very creditable run over C&D two starts ago. He is clearly improving and has appreciated the switch to all-weather racing of late, so it would come as no surprise if he went in again. Those looking for a bit of value might latch onto Laxton Ladd on his nursery debut sporting first-time cheekpieces, while Rishworthian is also noted.

ATR VERDICT: SCARBOROUGHDEBUT shaped on her latest outing, when fourth at the course in October, as though the step up to 6f would bring about improvement. Michael Dods' filly remains on the same mark and is taken to reverse the form with the third from that event, Attaboy Roy, who returned to fill the same spot in a handicap last month. Peely Wally and Split Elevens can fight it out for the minor honours.

ATR VERDICT: TOMILY took a big step forward when third over C&D on his latest start and the six-year-old is more than capable of returning to winning ways now 8lb lower than his last successful mark. Tathmeen's latest run here was disappointing but he can return to form on this occasion as he steps back up to 6f, while Medicine Jack and I Am The Secret complete the shortlist.
