ATR VERDICT: GLOBAL HARMONY has made a pleasing start to her hurdles career in reaching the podium the last twice and with the form of her recent Warwick third looking highly respectable, now could be the time for Dan Skelton's five-year-old to open her account. Kilmington Rose travelled smoothly into contention at Exeter before quickly fading away into fifth and it is interesting cheekpieces are now applied. Midnight Callisto steps up in trip following a respectable first effort over timber at Plumpton and before that placed in a Listed bumper at Market Rasen in January. Kim Bailey's point-to-point winner Starvoski is an interesting Rules newcomer.

Top Tip: GLOBAL HARMONY (5)

Watch out for: KILMINGTON ROSE (7)
