ATR VERDICT: FRESH NEW DAWN held on for second at Warwick last time and his form of late suggests a bold bid could be possible off the same mark here. Llancillo Lord ran on well to take a silver medal at Ludlow recently and the 10-year-old has to be respected, while Kilbrew Boy is a course-and-distance winner who wasn't disgraced when sent off favourite at Market Rasen last month.

ATR VERDICT: GLOBAL HARMONY has made a pleasing start to her hurdles career in reaching the podium the last twice and with the form of her recent Warwick third looking highly respectable, now could be the time for Dan Skelton's five-year-old to open her account. Kilmington Rose travelled smoothly into contention at Exeter before quickly fading away into fifth and it is interesting cheekpieces are now applied. Midnight Callisto steps up in trip following a respectable first effort over timber at Plumpton and before that placed in a Listed bumper at Market Rasen in January. Kim Bailey's point-to-point winner Starvoski is an interesting Rules newcomer.

Long Handicap: Menapian 9 - 10

ATR VERDICT: HUGOS OTHER HORSE didn't have the smoothest journey when second on his handicap debut at Taunton last week and could go one better here off the same mark at a venue his handler Paul Nicholls often excels at. Tango Boy ran with real credit in a competitive Cheltenham handicap last time and is of serious interest off an untouched figure, while Striking A Pose stayed on nicely for third at Ascot last time and could appreciate the step up in trip on his handicap bow, with the Colin Tizzard team in much better form now. Mille Sussurri relished heavy ground when scoring at Newton Abbot in October and is another who could play a part if handling this much sounder surface.

ATR VERDICT: DARLAC finished second behind a smart horse of Paul Nicholls', who finished third in last season's Grade 1 Challow Novices' Hurdle, at Exeter in novice company last time and sets the standard on that piece of form. Back in a handicap against lesser rivals, he is surely well treated off 127 and is relatively unexposed over this sort of trip. The yard won this with the smart Copperhead 12 months ago so it might be worth keeping an eye on the Sedgefield winner Carrick Roads too. Of the others, Get On The Yager won the Rowland Meyrick in 2017 and is beginning to look well handicapped off 125.

ATR VERDICT: THAHAB IFRAJ is very difficult to get away from in his present mood. He gets in off the same mark he exploited in a conditional jockeys' handicap at Kempton last time and Charlie Deutsch, who steered him to success over C&D the time before, takes over in the plate. He ticks plenty of boxes being 4lb well in at the weights and should prove too strong for Neff and Accomplice.

Long Handicap: Westerner Ocean 9 - 11

ATR VERDICT: Buoyed by the latest of his Ladbrokes Trophy wins, Tom Scudamore can steer FRILLY FROCK to another victory. There didn't appear to be much fluke about her latest course triumph, when sent off a 20-1 chance, and perhaps she's just improved since going over a fence. The step up in distance may have had something to do with the sudden improvement too, and she makes more appeal than Paddys Runner and Mogestic.

ATR VERDICT: It isn't easy to win a bumper under a penalty, but I LIKE TO MOVE IT looked above-average when bolting up at Aintree last month and Jordan Nailor's 5lb claim will certainly help in the saddle. As long as Paul Nicholls' Mondora isn't a superstar you would expect Nigel Twiston-Davies' inmate to remain unbeaten. The Nicholls filly must be respected, but she's sporting a hood and tongue-tie on debut which has to be a slight concern. Sweet Nightingale rates best of the rest.
