Long Handicap: The Pretty Way 8 - 11, Little Gem 8 - 11

ATR VERDICT: MID DAY RUSH did well to finish third at Wolverhampton having looked to be outpaced and at her limit for the majority of that contest. Therefore the step up to 6f off the same mark could see her get more involved at the finish here. The Pretty Way also picked up a bronze medal on that same card and it is interesting that Hollie Doyle is booked on this occasion, while Silver Nemo ran well for a long way over 7f on Sunday and the drop back to 6f could suit with an amateur rider taking over to remove 7lb.

Top Tip: MID DAY RUSH (10)

ATR VERDICT: NORTONTHORPE BOY, a winner over 7f here on his penultimate start, was narrowly denied back-to-back victories when second at Southwell on Sunday and is well worth trying over a mile while he is in such great form. Banoffee has finished behind the selection the last twice, including when a silver medallist in the aforementioned course encounter, and David Evans' filly links up with Richard Kingscote on this occasion off the same rating. Beija Flor is interesting stepping up in trip in first-time cheekpieces on her handicap debut, while Baby Sham, Hiroshi and Woodview could also get involved.

ATR VERDICT: HUNTERS STEP was only beaten a nose on his first start for Gay Kelleway and has a great chance of picking up some compensation off the same mark, with Luke Morris taking over in the saddle. My Law was a course-and-distance winner on her penultimate start and has to be respected, with Confrerie and Lady Morpheus other names to note.

ATR VERDICT: A wide-open heat in which a chance is taken on C&D winner RECUERDAME. Simon Dow's five-year-old is back on his last winning rating and there was promise to take from his latest effort, when finishing midfield at Wolverhampton. Turn Of Phrase is a potential improver for John Berry now sent handicapping, while Key Look could take a hand if building on her recent fourth over this trip at Lingfield.

ATR VERDICT: YEAR OF THE DRAGON shaped with an abundance of promise when third over C&D on debut and is expected to improve with the benefit of that outing under his belt. Merlin's Beard is a half-brother to five winners and is worth a market check to ascertain whether he may have any tricks up his sleeve first time out. With the George Boughey stable having enjoyed a sparkling 2020, newcomer Ellis Park is another to keep tabs on in the betting.

ATR VERDICT: MELODY OF LIFE sets the standard on his 1m second at Chelmsford second time out. He didn't quite run to the same level when dropped back to this trip at Lingfield last time, though he was ridden more aggressively on that occasion and he was far from disgraced in third all the same. Loyal Havana and Vivency have place claims if building on their latest efforts, while Sir Mark Prescott's newcomer Polar Ice, a 120,000gns recruit, is worth a market check.

ATR VERDICT: Coqueta didn't seem to enjoy her Fibresand experience at Southwell in November but previously showed potential both here and at Haydock and could easily bounce back. My Boy Sepoy would be dangerous if granted a strong early gallop, but this can go the way of THANIELLE. Fourth over C&D last month, this is just her third start for Alan King and the Nathaniel filly is seriously unexposed over middle distances. She has been dropped a further 1lb since she was last seen and could take advantage.

ATR VERDICT: COOL TO BE A CAT won on Tapeta over this distance at Wolverhampton last month and would be hard to beat if transferring that form to Polytrack. Ian Williams' charge landed a bit of a gamble on that occasion, and could defy a 4lb rise over a trip that clearly suits him. Ember's Glow isn't the most reliable but would be dangerous if putting everything together, while Truly Together might do better down in trip on just her third start for Marco Botti.

ATR VERDICT: NELSON RIVER was successful at Wolverhampton six days ago in a race for apprentice riders and arrives here off the same mark as a result under Elisha Whittington. That was a first success for the six-year-old in any code since December 2018, and it might just have done his confidence the world of good. Figeac carries a 4lb penalty for his Lingfield triumph last month, while recent Tapeta runner-up Flat To The Max is another to consider.
