| TIMEFORM VIEW: This step up in trip should suit MAHLER ALLSTAR, who made a promising start over hurdles when third in a big-field Leopardstown novice and he is open to plenty of improvement. Fantasio D'alene, a bumper winner here last season, also shaped like a ready-made future winner when runner-up on his first run in this sphere at Naas. He is the clear main danger ahead of Pure Genius and Sean Hogan. | | | | | | |
