ATR VERDICT: MAGIC DAZE has shown enough to suggest she will win this. A good point-to-point winner on debut for Colin Bowe, she subsequently made the running in a hot maiden hurdle at Leopardstown over Christmas, won by a high class type, and while beaten 18L into third, the form of that race is strong and dropping back in trip today should pose no problems on testing ground. Nelly's Money was also a debut point-to-point winner in December 2018 and while she has since shown some useful form, does appear vulnerable. Sweet Sixteen is a maiden after nine career runs but has shown some useful enough hurdle form and can get involved for the placings. Union Rock is out of a winning mare who is from a good family but is possibly best watched on debut.

Top Tip: MAGIC DAZE (10)

Watch out for: NELLY'S MONEY (5)
