Jockey Colours: Red, grey chevron, sleeves and cap Expert View: Not clear run down the field in a classified race over 9f at Wolverhampton most recent; bits and pieces of form especially here offers hope; must bounce back over trip that stretches ★★★★☆				Notes:
EXPERT VIEW: The admirably consistent SERAPHIC looks the most solid option and is taken to land the top prize arriving here fit and well off a fine 2nd over hurdles in March. The drop back in trip is not guaranteed to suit but it's well worth a go and he's only a pound higher than his only winning mark on the Flat. Luna Effect looks like she's going the right way again and can give the selection most to do if handling the drop back to 1m2f. Sawgrass is interesting based on her debut effort over 11f before two poor runs at 1m and 7f. This 10f could prove ideal and is given a chance from a mark of 48 on handicap debut. Rivas Rob Roy is untrustworthy but if there's a lack of pace could surprise over track that suits well.
