EXPERT VIEW: This looks a decent opportunity for BLENHEIM STAR who can add to his two CD wins which came on the forecast quick ground. The fact he was beaten less than a length on career debut and then was placed on first run last term augurs well for his chances off a layoff here. Shaw Park looks most likely to serve it up to the selection arriving fit and in decent nick for a return to a venue that he loves. However, he'd prefer 7f and the step up to a mile could find him out close home. The same sentiment applies to Otago and so the bigger threat comes from Marsh Benham who'll enjoy a return to a CD that suits very well. Most of his recent top form has been with plenty of cut but he has won on fast ground and a big run can't be discounted.

1-2-3 Selections:
