EXPERT VIEW: BOUJEE GOLD will need to step up a bit on recent form but it's worth taking a chance that can happen on her return to turf. She ran only once on turf last term when a fine 3rd beaten less than a length in fast conditions at Doncaster and that was at the very least on a par with the pick of her AW last year. Light Up Out Stars put in a rare below par effort latest but has disappointed on numerous occasions at Southwell and it's likely he can bounce back here over suitable conditions. He can run the selection close. A better run is expected from Mudlahhim soon but a bigger threat today could be Flying Star who'se latest effort is probably best forgiven after a tardy start over 7f, a trip that looks a little sharp. Two of her best runs were on quick ground in maiden company (including going well here over 6f) and she'd be in with a terrific shout if finding her best again.
