EXPERT VIEW: The standard is set by Fleur De Rose who looks the pick of the Donnacha O'Brien yard after a promising debut effort from the front finishing behind a rival who has followed up at Group level since. The race has thrown up other winners so she should go close if progressing. However she could be vulnerable to a talented newcomer and there are a few that fit the bill. Ger Lyons has a good record in this race so By The Lake is respected but it is CACTUS who appeals most. She has an attractive pedigree which suggests the sound surface will suit and her top stable gets plenty of first time out winners.

EXPERT VIEW: THE PIPER'S CALL outran huge odds when runner up on debut finishing strongly suggesting that this step up in trip would be of benefit. That race has thrown up winners and been franked at Group level so if making normal improvement he will be tough to beat. Howd'yadoit was behind Sir Alfie last time but he did meet trouble last time and should be able to reverse that form on these revised terms. The pair can fight out the places behind the selection.

EXPERT VIEW: Top weight Carrigans Grove arrives in terrific form and is likely to prove popular with the step up in trip no issue. However following a rise in the weights she may be vulnerable to a better treated rival and one who fits the bill is the veteran STANHOPE. He was disappointing last time but he was in good form earlier in the spring proving he retained his ability and he's now back on his last winning mark with a useful claimer up. All of his best efforts have come at Navan suggesting that this similar venue will suit and he could surprise at generous odds. Maiden Jackandthefox has been in good form on the AW and turf since being dropped to sprint trips and can complete the places.

EXPERT VIEW: Impossible to get away from AURORA NOVA who is thrown in if turned out quickly and can complete a hat trick. The longer trip isn't an issue as she's won over 6f in the past so if coping with the stiffer venue will be tough to stop. Top weight Gazelle D'Or is another arriving in excellent form and though her revised mark demands more she isn't dismissed along with the unexposed Kwa Herini. That rival returned to form when runner up last time and should appreciate the stiff finish here.

Notes:

Expert View: Comfortably held in Airlie Stud Stakes (Group 2) over 6f at The Curragh last time; fortunate to beat Green Soul first time out; more needed ★★☆☆☆ (Forecast 12/1)

EXPERT VIEW: Plenty of unexposed sorts but it is debut winner DAYTONA who gets the verdict. He had plenty in hand first time out and his classy breeding suggests that there is much more to come over this longer trip for a top stable. The biggest threats look to be the Joseph O'Brien pair North Coast and Green Soul. The former is the first string on jockey bookings and has seen his debut form franked at Group level so holds strong claims while his stablemate is expected to reverse previous form with Leblon Queen.

EXPERT VIEW: The race which CASHELDALE LASS won last time may be the key to this contest. She was worth more than the winning margin that day despite getting first run so is taken to defy a rise in the weights. Of those in behind her that day Lisnadill looks the biggest danger on these revised terms. She missed the break last time so had no chance after conceding first run but finished well suggesting this step up in trip would be of benefit. Of those at bigger prices Miss Americana could surprise at a big price on her handicap debut. She's well treated off this basement mark judged on her penultimate run and should appreciate this step back up in trip.

EXPERT VIEW: A tight contest where FIRST WAVE gets the narrow verdict taking a significant drop in grade following a Group 1 run at Royal Ascot. He took a while to get off the mark before that but the form of his maiden victory has worked out well and he's open to progress for his top stable. The experienced Mathan is feared most as he had been progressing until his last run where he had plenty of excuses. He failed to stay 1m that day but could bounce back down in trip if breaking on terms. Storm Piece is another who has seen his maiden win franked and held his form in a hot handicap last time so isn't ruled out either.
