Jockey Colours: tartan, gold sleeves, tartan cuffs and cap Expert View: Showed a modest debut but displayed a good attitude when beaten 9 1/2l in a novice over 7f at Chelmsford; bred to want 7/8f and didn't show much ability on debut.

EXPERT VIEW: ICENI QUEEN is hard to look past in this 2yo fillies race. She wasn't given a hard time and finished well when fourth in a novice at Chelmsford on debut; she's middledistance bred, but effective over 1m and a big filly with plenty to come. Also on the shortlist is strong debut performer Ziata, who produced a solid effort when runner-up in a Haydock novice over 7f and looks promising. Third best could be&nbsp:Moon Is Up, who tired badly after being made too much use of when well beaten on debut at Leicester; she's bred to want 10f and moves as though that trip will suit but could improve enough to make the frame regardless.
