EXPERT VIEW: MELODIC looks the one to beat in this maiden. The 400,000gns Fastnet Rock filly, half-sister to Old Glory who was very smart over 10f, represents a stable in form and is likely to go well. Also in the mix is Goodwood Mogul, who ran to form when third in a 10f handicap at Salisbury. He's effective from 8f to 10f and handles ground with some give. Completing the trio is Return To Unit, who would have won but for hanging under pressure when second at Lingfield last time, effective at 1m and seemingly unlucky not to have opened his account and with more to come.

EXPERT VIEW: ICENI QUEEN is hard to look past in this 2yo fillies race. She wasn't given a hard time and finished well when fourth in a novice at Chelmsford on debut; she's middle-distance bred, but effective over 1m and a big filly with plenty to come. Also on the shortlist is strong debut performer Ziata, who produced a solid effort when runner-up in a Haydock novice over 7f and looks promising. Third best could be Moon Is Up, who tired badly after being made too much use of when well beaten on debut at Leicester; she's bred to want 10f and moves as though that trip will suit but could improve enough to make the frame regardless.

EXPERT VIEW: Preference in this nursery is for PARISIAN SCHOLAR. Suited by being ridden more positively, he came clear to win a Newcastle handicap last time. He is showing progressive form, is off a fair mark and has a significant jockey booking. Also in contention is Bearin Up, who improved up in trip to win a Ripon handicap and looks suited by the mile. Blooming Legend may be best of the rest, she ran to form when second last time and appears well treated, with her trainer in fine form and the mile expected to suit.

Jockey Colours: Red, white hoops and armlets Expert View: Probably made a bit too much use of when finishing down the field in a handicap over 1m6f at Haydock last time. 9 (5)		653210	EARTHWATCH (IRE) 38 b g Earthlight - Voladora	3 8 - 10	Tom Marquand W J Haggas	81
Jockey Colours: Olive green, old gold hoops, olive green cap Expert View: Scored by 4 1/4l off 70 over 8f at Sandown on his penultimate start but ran poorly last time. Trainer in form; effective at 1m, acts on good and good to firm ground, but has a bit to prove after that disappointing run. ★★☆☆☆ (Forecast 7/1)					Notes:
EXPERT VIEW: A difficult-to-assess contest where the preference is for GAMRAI. He would have finished 2–3l closer if ridden out when second in a novice at Epsom last time and looks an effective 10f performer on a sound surface. He's well bred with more to come. Also worth consideration is Mr Alan, who ran to form when beaten at Pontefract last time, having previously won this race in both 2022 and 2023; he is effective at 10f, handles any ground, though is best with some cut, and remains generally consistent. Third best could be King's Code, who ran to form when landing an 11f handicap at Kempton, though his new mark could prove slightly demanding.

EXPERT VIEW: This looks an modest event where the narrow preference is for WESTGATE WARRIOR. He ran to form on his first start on soft ground when beaten narrowly at Beverley last time. He's at least a good on a sound surface and is on a fair mark. Another with claims is Son Of Astar, who produced his best recent effort in first-time cheekpieces when winning at Bath. Third best looks to be Fear And Fast, who ran to form when second at Musselburgh last time. He is still a maiden but is at least in form.
