ATR VERDICT: Having finished runner-up at Windsor and Newcastle last month, Canopus is likely to give another good account. However, Ed Walker's charge may have to play second fiddle once more, with GOODWOOD MOGUL shading the vote. The son of Mohaather has been running with credit over 1m2f of late, but the addition of first-time cheekpieces, coupled with a drop in trip, could elicit some improvement. Return To Unit and debutant Melodic are others to consider.

ATR VERDICT: Having made late headway into fourth on her debut over 7f at Haydock last month, ZIATA makes grand appeal. The daughter of Iffraaj should be all the wiser for that experience and a breakthrough victory may be in the offing, especially given that this longer trip should suit. Icen Queen boasts a similar level of form and she cannot be dismissed, while newcomers Glasgow Kiss, Churchill's Spirit and Plaid all merit closer inspection.

ATR VERDICT: Having stretched clear to record an impressive success at Newcastle recently, PARISIAN SCHOLAR is fancied to defy a 6lb penalty. Charlie Johnston's youngster had little difficulty in completing a double that day and he's taken to repel fellow last-time-out winner Bearin Up. The daughter of Kodi Bear appeared to relish a step up in trip at Ripon latest and a subsequent 5lb rise shouldn't prevent another bold showing. The unexposed Aleen sports first-time cheekpieces and it will be interesting to see if her supporters return.

ATR VERDICT: In what is set to be a huge week for the Gosden team, the well-bred GAMRAI can get the ball rolling. It was a disappointing effort when beaten at long odds-on at Epsom last month, but he is expected to bounce back now switched to handicaps. Mr Alan caught the eye on his second run for new connections when third at Pontefract last time out, and he must enter calculations, along with Kempton winner King's Code and the returning Parlando.

ATR VERDICT: SENOR CORTEZ continues to go from strength to strength. Switching stables should not inconvenience him, and the four-year-old, who is now 8lb higher than for his most recent victory at Lingfield, can land the hat-trick. A winner on two of her last three starts over 2m plus, Rock N Roll Pinkie is a key player, as is St Mawes, who scored comfortably at Kempton last month, for which he has been raised 3lb.

ATR VERDICT: MOONJID has threatened to break the maiden since joining Michael Appleby's yard and he did so once again at Kempton recently, when not beaten far into third over the mile. An extra half furlong should suit, and he may have too much for Radical Design, who was successful at the same track from 3lb lower last month. Beverley winner Kiss Me My Love and Glorious Kitty are likely to enter the reckoning as well.

ATR VERDICT: A few to consider including the likes of Newcastle scorer Jachin and Dovey Moon, who finished a creditable third in a competitive series final over C&D latest. Final Night was raised 8lb for a commanding Kempton triumph a fortnight ago but he merits consideration too, although TWILIGHT ICE is preferred. The Twilight Son gelding showed ability in novice/maiden events but he switches to handicaps with his yard in excellent form, and it would come as no great surprise were he to find the necessary improvement.

ATR VERDICT: Dropping to the minimum trip almost worked the oracle for WESTGATE WARRIOR at Beverley, where he was picked up in the closing stages to ultimately fill the runner-up spot. However, that was a fine effort nonetheless and if able to find any further progress, Roy Bowring's gelding could go one place better. Yazaman hasn't always been the most consistent this season but he has become too well handicapped to ignore, while others to note include Son Of Astar and Ninety Nine.
