Effective at 2m4f and best on good ground; inconsistent but only just above last winning mark. ★★☆☆☆ (Forecast 10/1)					Notes:

EXPERT VIEW: Having thrived under an attacking ride at Fakenham last time, it would be no surprise to see ENJOY D'ALLEN follow up, despite a 7lb rise. He's not the horse he once was, but still looks to hold a class edge over his rivals. The absence is of no concern for Fuji Flight, given his trainer Venetia Williams is a dab hand at getting one ready, but he wasn't in the best of form when last seen in the spring and may have liked softer ground. Fern Hill ended a losing run at Uttoxeter last time and he remains fairly treated off a 3lb higher mark, but he goes particularly well at that Midlands venue and faces a tougher ask against the selection this time.

1-2-3 Selections:

- 1: ENJOY D'ALLEN (2)
- 2: FUJI FLIGHT (1)
- 3: FERN HILL (3)

Jockey Colours: Dark green, light blue hoops, dark green and pink halved sleeves, pink cap Expert View: Found little when well beaten in a handicap hurdle over 2m4f at Worcester last time. Usually held up in his races. Effective at 2m4f and acts on soft and good ground, but is an unreliable type. ★★★★★ (Forecast 33/1)					Notes:

Jockey Colours: Black, red epaulets, armlets and cap Expert View: Improved but seemed unsuited by the drop in trip and needed the run when comfortably held in a novice hurdle over 2m1f at Newton Abbot last time. Effective at 2m but likely to be better over further and acts on good ground. ★★★★★ (Forecast 5/1)					Notes:

Jockey Colours: White, royal blue seams, royal blue sleeves, white armllets, royal blue cap Expert View: Returned to form under a positive ride down in trip when beaten 2l off 74 over 2m1f at Exeter last time. Effective from 2m to 2m4f and suited by good or good to firm ground. Chance if repeating that latest effort. ★★☆☆☆ (Forecast 6/1)						Notes:
EXPERT VIEW: A weak race that can go to BLUE UNIVERSE, who has top weight but looks the one to beat on the form of his handicap third at Worcester in September. He didn't get home when tried in cheekpieces last time, but is free of headgear now and gets the assistance of Freddie Gordon. Tigga Time clearly needed the run on his recent return from a lengthy absence/stable debut at Worcester and now finds himself on a nice mark, while at bigger odds don't be surprised to see a good run from Bread And Butter, a past C&D winner who finds himself attractively weighted these days.

Jockey Colours: Purple, light green spots Expert View: From a yard that has won the last two renewals of this race; needed the run on hurdles debut after a wind operation when comfortably held in a novice hurdle over 2m1f at Bangor-on-Dee last time; a point winner who showed promise in 2m bumpers on good ground and should improve over hurdles. ★★★★★ (Forecast 25/1)					Notes:
7		68-	KARLITA DESBOIS (FR) 280 gr m Beaumec De Houelle - Extreme Dream	5 11 - 0	Charlie Deutsch Mrs M Rowley	-

Jockey Colours: White, red disc, hooped cap Expert View: Ran below form when well beaten in a mares' bumper over 2m1f at Market Rasen last time; should prove effective at 2m over hurdles but needs to show more. ★★☆☆☆ (Forecast 25/1)					Notes:
8		7-5P0	SECRET PASS 12 b m Passing Glance - Gunner Be Sweet	5 11 - 0	Jack Andrews (3) T Ellis	-
Jockey Colours: Emerald green, black cross belts, emerald green and yellow check cap Expert View: Again failed to reproduce her bumper form when down the field in a novice hurdle at Stratford last time; effective at 2m in bumpers but unlikely to make an impact until contesting lower-grade handicaps. ★☆☆☆☆ (Forecast 100/1)					Notes:
EXPERT VIEW: It won't be easy under a penalty, but LADY TADITA looked a filly going places when winning impressively on her hurdling debut at Market Rasen, form that has been upheld, and she can take this en route to something better. A pair of also-rans from the Grade 2 Mares' bumper at Aintree's Grand National meeting back in April look likely to give her most to do, with Blue Betty preferred to Amelia's Star as the danger. Blue Betty finished lame in that Aintree contest and represents a yard that has won this for the past two years, with there being a suspicion Amelia's Star may need further to be seen at her best.

Long Handicap: Raindance Queen 9 - 4
EXPERT VIEW: It's clear RIP WHEELER brings the most potential of these, being a former point winner who signed off last season with his best effort to date under rules at this course, just denied in a handicap hurdle. His stable hit form on Sunday and he can make a winning start to his chasing career. Goodbyemick has yet to win, but he's been running with credit in various headgear and rates a solid enough candidate, while Lord Maher, like the selection just a 5yo, was running an improved race when brought down at Fontwell last time and could have a say stepping back up in trip.

Long Handicap: Mi Sueno 9 - 2

EXPERT VIEW: This looks a good opportunity for DICKENS, fitted with a first-time tongue-tie on this drop in trip. He's consistent at this sort of level and rates the most likely winner. Forget The Way is the one to fear most, but he must leave behind a couple of below par efforts, while Enthused is on a fair mark back hurdling but has hardly been in red-hot form on the Flat. The last-named pair are both previous C&D winners but can't boast the same recent form as the selection.

EXPERT VIEW: The only mare in the field, KINGSTON SUNFLOWER excels on a flat, right-handed circuit and still looks feasily treated, with her capable rider's claim a help. She wouldn't want rain, but looks the one to beat if it stays away. Charging Thunder should do better than at Cheltenham last time, his first run over hurdles since December, with the return to a flatter track very much in his favour. He's still got potential from this mark, given his Flat rating. Although his recent runs are nothing to get excited about, Castel Gandolfo has had his excuses and finds himself just below his last winning mark. He could go well at a price.

Jockey Colours: Pink and black check, pink sleeves, pink cap, black star Expert View: Yard won this last year; Cokoriko filly and half-sister to a 2m1f hurdle winner in France; looks a contender on debut. ★★★★★ (Forecast 11/4)					Notes:
6			SAXONS PRIDE b f Telescope - Giveaway Glance	3 11 - 0	Philip Armson (3) A King	-
Jockey Colours: Light blue, red sash and armlets Expert View: Telescope filly; dam was very useful at 11f; merits consideration on debut for a respected yard. ★★★★★ (Forecast 10/3)					Notes:
7			SEMELE b f Bobby's Kitten - Temple of Thebes	3 11 - 0	Ben Bromley (5) L Wadham	-
Jockey Colours: Mauve, mauve and white check sleeves, white cap Expert View: Bobby's Kitten filly; dam was very useful at 6f; not an obvious one on breeding but represents a respected yard and this is not a strong race. ★★☆☆☆ (Forecast 11/2)					Notes:
8			SUSIE Q b f Magna Grecia - Flash Dance	3 11 - 0	Ryan Mania Paul Robson	-

Jockey Colours: Dark blue and pink diabolo, chevrons on sleeves, pink cap, dark blue diamond
Expert View: Magna Grecia filly; dam was high-class at 9f; could play a part in this ordinary race on debut. ★★☆☆☆ (Forecast 16/1)

Notes:

EXPERT VIEW: There was plenty to like about the debut of CRYSTAL JET, in what looked a better race than this at Stratford, and her experience should serve her well, with the main dangers appearing to be newcomers. The aforementioned Stratford event was won by a debutante from the Alan King yard and his runner, Saxons Pride, is the one most likely to trouble the selection, her dam being from a family King knows well. Palma Springs, another yet to see a racecourse, is best of the rest for last year's winning yard.

1-2-3 Selections:

- 1: CRYSTAL JET (2)
- 2: SAXONS PRIDE (6)
- 3: PALMA SPRINGS (5)
