ATR VERDICT: ENJOY D'ALLEN made every yard of the running to score by 10 lengths in this grade at Fakenham last month and even a 7lb rise might underestimate the manner of that success. If in similar form, he will prove a tough nut to crack. Fern Hill was victorious at Uttoxeter on his most recent outing and is just 3lb higher, so would be foolish to dismiss. Fuji Flight can beat Zacony Rebel home for third.

ATR VERDICT: Mistral Blue went in by over two lengths at Hereford in April and, if ready to go on her return, she ought to go close. However, PRAIRIE QUEEN finished third over an extended 2m at Exeter last time and may appreciate this step back up in trip. Off an unchanged mark and with Ciaran O'Shea claiming a handy 5lb in the plate, she looks the way to go. Blue Universe isn't ruled out either.

ATR VERDICT: LADY TADITA made a strong impression when accounting for her nearest rival by eight lengths on her hurdling bow at Market Rasen in September. Jamie Snowden's filly now has a penalty to contend with but that is unlikely to prevent her from following up. Blue Betty failed to fire in a Grade 2 bumper at Aintree when last seen, but this is a lot easier and she has to be considered tackling hurdles for the first time. Caterpillar Girl is the pick of the remainder.

Long Handicap: Raindance Queen 9 - 4

ATR VERDICT: In a moderate event, marginal preference is for GOODBYEMICK, who has been running well enough in defeat of late over hurdles to suggest that he can go well in a race of this nature. Rip Wheeler would be a big threat based on his narrow second over timber here in April if he's ready to go after a break, while Crac De Megaudais is the pick of the remainder.

Top Tip: GOODBYEMICK (6)

Watch out for: RIP WHEELER (2)

Long Handicap: Mi Sueno 9 - 2

ATR VERDICT: ENTHUSED was a respectable sixth in the Summer Handicap Hurdle at Market Rasen on his penultimate start over timber and he is likely to play a big role now switched to a selling handicap. Dickens has filled second place in all three starts since securing a double in a similar race to this at Newton Abbot in September and he has to be noted. Others to consider are Forget The Way and Fascinating Lips.

ATR VERDICT: KINGSTON SUNFLOWER was an impressive six-length winner on her return to hurdling at Ludlow a month ago and Fergal O'Brien's mare is hard to oppose on the back of that effort, despite a 7lb rise. Diesel Line placed at Uttoxeter most recently after winning at the same venue in September and he is an obvious danger, while He's A Latchico and Charging Thunder should not be underestimated.

Top Tip: KINGSTON SUNFLOWER (1)

Watch out for: DIESEL LINE (8)

ATR VERDICT: CRYSTAL JET caught the eye when filling third place on her racecourse bow at Stratford last month and Toby Bulgin's filly could be hard to stop with the benefit of that experience. Saxons Pride is out of a mare who won on the Flat as well as over hurdles and she could go well on her debut, while any market support for Palma Springs or Semele would have to be noted.

Top Tip: CRYSTAL JET (2)

Watch out for: SAXONS PRIDE (6)
