EXPERT VIEW: The standard is probably set by debut winner Kapitein Kool. He caused a shock that day but there was no fluke about it as he beat numerous previous winners so he isn't ruled out under a penalty. He could however be vulnerable to a talented newcomer such as HARRY LOWES. The selection was a winner in a point last time and has since joined top connections. He will have more to offer under rules and gets the verdict ahead of Aguellid who shaped well on his only start in France which has been boosted at Listed level.

2		4/2-5	LARGY BELTER (IRE) 17 b g Youmzain - Iflett	5 11 - 4ht	Harry Skelton Dan Skelton	-
Jockey Colours: Light blue, orange epaulets Expert View: Made mistakes and was outpaced when well held on debut in a beginners' chase over 2m at Uttoxeter last time. Irish bumper form has been franked and he may improve, likely over further in time. ★☆☆☆☆ (Forecast 66/1)				Notes:

Jockey Colours: Black, white stars, white sleeves, red armbands, pink cap Expert View: Ran to his best when second, beaten a head, in the Select Hurdle (Grade 2) over 2m6f at Sandown last time. Very useful hurdler; strong claims if rain arrives on chase debut. ★★★★★ (Forecast 9/2)				Notes:

Jockey Colours: Yellow and black check, yellow sleeves, yellow cap, black star Expert View: Travelled strongly and won readily when landing the Champion Four Year Old Hurdle (Grade 1) at Punchestown over 2m by 4l last time. With the trainer in form, he looks the pick on overall form with promise of more to come over fences. ★★★★★ (Forecast 4/9)				Notes:
6		11620-5	STENCIL 2 D BF b g Masar - Fullof wonder	4 10 - 10	G Sheehan N & A Zetterholm	-
Jockey Colours: Emerald green, yellow hoops, white cap Expert View: Keen and travelled well before tiring up the hill after a late error when well held in the Arkle Challenge Trophy Trial Novices' Chase (Grade 2) over 2m at Cheltenham last time. Effective at 2m and handles cut; can do better when ridden more positively. ★★☆☆☆ (Forecast 25/1)				Notes:

EXPERT VIEW: A strong race can go to LULAMBA who proved himself top class as a juvenile hurdler last time finishing an unlucky second in the Triumph before making amends at Punchestown. His trainer has always held him in the highest regard and suggested that there would be more to come in this sphere. Salver would probably ideally want slightly further than this on easier ground but he sets the standard on ratings on his best hurdles form so looks the obvious danger. Tripoli Flyer was also a Graded winner over hurdles and was going well when departing on his chase debut. If his jumping holds up he can also make his presence felt.

EXPERT VIEW: A PATH TO RONDA may be able to defy a penalty here. She was untested first time out over hurdles and though this is a better race she should be tough to peg back down in trip if putting her experience to good use. She also has a fitness edge on her main rival Supreme Malinas who was a Listed winner in buimpers last term. That form has had some knocks but she should provide the biggest challenge ahead of Betty's Daisy who was also highly tried in bumpers following a debut victory.

EXPERT VIEW: An open race where REALLYNTRUTHFULLY may be able to follow up on his debut victory. He beat some more experienced rivals in decisive fashion that day and has only gone up 7lb. Pony Soprano went off too quickly on his chase debut but was far from disgraced by a rival who franked the form at Listed level over the weekend. If ridden slightly more conservatively he can chase the selection home ahead of the highly regarded That's Nice. The mare was 2-3 over hurdles and likely has more to offer in this sphere for top connections.

EXPERT VIEW: Point winner SPECIAL JOHN proved consistent in his short hurdling career and could now get off the mark under rules switched to the larger obstacles. He recorded a rating higher than his current mark on his penultimate start over hurdles and the form of that race has worked out well. Top weight Mythe Bridge has gone close on both starts over fences so far so looks the obvious danger while Fat Faced Columbo is also of interest at a bigger price. He shaped like a stayer on his last hurdles run and it is notable that the yard switches him to fences so quickly in his career.

EXPERT VIEW: Point winner JAKAR DU MOULIN was still in front when coming down last time and is chosen to make amends off just 2lb higher on his return. He's completely unexposed at 3m in handicaps and is open to further progress following a wind op. The consistent Diamatiste arrives in form and should find this easier than his latest assignment. He could prove the main danger ahead of Kingston Gent who has shaped like a strong stayer so should relish this extra distance.
