Flat-bred but may stay a little further than 2m over hurdles. ★★☆☆☆ (Forecast 100/1)				Notes:

EXPERT VIEW: KOM TU VOUDRAS was thought highly enough to contest a Grade 1 on debut. He was ultimately well held but the fact his top connections started him there is a positive sign. He shaped with plenty of promise next time when chasing home a very useful stablemate and should be able to take advantage of a drop in class here. The clear danger is Two Pair who finished runner up on debut to a rival who ran well at Listed level next time. If building on that he can fill the places with point winner Katie Daniels who showed improved form when placing last time.

- 1-2-3 Selections:
1: KOM TU VOUDRAS (10)
2: TWO PAIR (13)
3: KATIE DANIELS (8)

EXPERT VIEW: Classy novice hurdler Kiss Will is likely to prove popular starting out over fences for his top connections. He should go close but may be vulnerable to TAREZE who gets weight and boasts a fitness edge. She wasn't given a hard time when chasing home a stablemate who has franked the form at Graded level first time out over fences. She should improve for that outing and will enjoy conditions so gets a narrow verdict. Like the selection Patter Merchant will appreciate this step up in trip and if building on his initial effort he can fill the places.

EXPERT VIEW: CON'S ROC was successful on his sole rules start last year and can make light of a long absence here. The form of that race took a boost at Cheltenham in the spring and the selection has run well in a point since. C&D winner Big Interest is feared most arriving fit after a spin in points. He is inconsistent under rules but should be competitive if bringing his best while Bold Fury is also respected. He would ideally want better ground but has proven consistent over hurdles and fences.

EXPERT VIEW: An open race can go to the unexposed THEMANINTHEANORAK who proved steadily progressive in maidens. The way he finished off his race last time suggested that he would have much more to offer now handicapping over longer trips such as this. Blue Reed raced too close to a strong pace last time but is well treated on his winter form and has the potential for an easy lead here. He could be tough to peg back if doing so and looks a big threat along with Leis Fein who posted an improved effort last time. Whilst he is not one to rely on backing that up he could be well treated returned to handicaps.

EXPERT VIEW: Plenty of point form to go on here but UNFLINCHING's victory has worked out very well and he's fancied to make a winning debut under rules here. He has joined a top stable which can get them ready first time so he can get the better of fellow point winners Patsy's Pride and Catalani. The latter is especially respected as he arrives in terrific form.
