Jockey Colours: Red, white cross belts, halved sleeves Expert View: Finished down the field in a Leicester nursery last time. Cheekpieces fitted for the first time. Off a short break and drawn wide. Best form at 6f on all-weather but has stamina to prove over 7f. ★☆☆☆☆ (Forecast 33/1)					Notes:
EXPERT VIEW: A wide draw is a bit of a concern but ESPONA BAY has run his two best races over 6f on the AW - all other runs have come on turf - and he was something of an eyecatcher here last time, finishing strongly behind a horse landing a hat-trick. He's up just 1lb and can get off the mark, with Oisin Murphy again in the saddle. Stock Market may have a bigger effort in him, the ex-Ballydoyle colt having done too much early on his stable debut at Lingfield. Copperfield is another of interest, the relation of Group 1-winning sprinter Shaquille now being tried in a visor.

EXPERT VIEW: His penalty is offset by a capable 7lb rider, so it's reasonable to expect FREE YOUR SPIRIT to go in again, having got off the mark in style over this trip at Wolverhampton last month, just a few days after an underwhelming debut. He almost certainly has more to offer. Okiru was no match the selection last time and needs improvement to turn things around, but still rates the danger. Adalida should bounce back from a modest stable debut, with cheekpieces now tried, but she's again vulnerable.

EXPERT VIEW: The filly UP THE ANTI has won two of her last three starts, including when returning to AW over this C&D last time and springing a 50-1 surprise. A 3lb rise looks perfectly fair and she can go in again, with Oisin Murphy obviously a positive jockey booking. Stablemate Gundogan may emerge as the danger, dropped in trip and following a string of consistent efforts, with Lerwick another to consider following a good run over 7f at the course last time. He's just as effective at this shorter trip.

EXPERT VIEW: The Lost King is certainly interesting, being so lightly raced and with his last run having come when down the field in the Britannia. His earlier third in the Esher Cup is strong form, so he could clearly go well off a fair mark, but there's a chance he'll need this back from 202 days off. Mount Athos loves it here and is on the same mark as when winning over C&D in March, but just over 1l away in fourth on that occasion was POPMASTER, who is now 6lb better off and comes in off a good run at Southwell just the other day.

EXPERT VIEW: A tight one to call between FORESEEN and Rajinoora, with only a marginal preference being for the Tony Carroll-trained runner. He's on a hat-trick and impressed with the manner in which he picked up from off the pace to win over C&D last time. A 7lb rise may not prove beyond him. Rajinoora caught the eye when coming through for second at Chelmsford on her return from a break and she ought to go close off 2lb higher, with Frostmagic perhaps next best if able to bounce back from a lesser effort last time.

EXPERT VIEW: The veteran Bashful Boy is in good form and can go well from the foot of the weights but CRUDEN shaped like a horse with more to offer when on the Flat for his new yard when coming through to take second over 14f at Wolverhampton last time and he can go one place better over this longer trip. Third choice is Sax Appeal, who is penalised for his Southwell win. That signalled an improved effort and he ought to run well once more despite conceding plenty of weight.

EXPERT VIEW: Troy Story looks capable of better tried in cheekpieces for the first time, although he may need riding a little bit more conservatively. Let's take a chance on 4yo filly SANDS OF HAVANA, who ran in the 2024 Queen Mary but looks to have potential over middle-distances with there being stamina on the dam's side of her pedigree. She ran well over 10f at Lingfield last time, making late ground from off the pace, and can take another step forward. Fiddlers Green is an in-form 7yo set to go well again, so is another to consider.
