EXPERT VIEW: SHALAA ASKER, a good winner at Chelmsford two starts back, looked unlucky not to go close from his revised mark at Southwell last time, no getting the best of runs, and he may gain compensation in this. Forest Gunner sprang back to life when winning a classified event at Lingfield last time and is of some interest back in a handicap so rates the danger. Street Life is sure to go well again also, having struck form of late, running well when third under a penalty over C&D just four days ago.
