ATR VERDICT: Despite being well held, BUDDY HOLLY displayed plenty of promise when finishing third on his hurdling/stable debut at Newbury in November. This looks to be a much easier test for the five-year-old and he could be hard to beat as a result. Jaccours is likely to be the main danger if back to his best, while Ercall Fox and Tommy Pickles complete the shortlist.

ATR VERDICT: TURENNE looked set to be successful before falling at the last on his most recent outing at Fontwell in December. With a clear round this time, it would be no surprise to see David Pipe's gelding make amends here. Blowers looks the likely pace angle and has to enter calculations, despite falling here last time, while Titanium Ring complete the shortlist.

ATR VERDICT: The unexposed GIRLS BEST FRIEND was second when trying to follow up on his Uttoxeter win in November at Market Rasen the following month. Further improvement looks likely and he can defy a 6lb higher mark here. Illogical Logic has been knocking on the door of late and is likely to be in the mix once again. First-time cheekpieces for Dangerous Touch makes him of interest as well.

Long Handicap: Junior Des Mottes 10 - 0

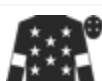

ATR VERDICT: GLENGOLLY recorded an impressive win at Hereford before Christmas and lost little in defeat when splitting a pair of subsequent winners at Uttoxeter on New Year's Eve. The wind operation he underwent in September seems to have done the trick and the seven-year-old is preferred to PIPAS LESCIBAA, who ran a blinder to finish second here latest. Stellar Stream reverts to hurdles off an appealing mark and is another to consider.

ATR VERDICT: Seasmoke arrives in fine fettle and is likely to prove popular given her scope for further improvement. However, the daughter of Flemensfirth has something to prove on testing ground and it might prove wiser to side with LADY HARRIETT. Although only a modest hurdler, her dam is related to a couple of useful chasers. That bodes well and shouldering a light weight is no bad thing either. Stamina Chope completes the shortlist.

ATR VERDICT: REINADO made amends for falling here in October when scoring with consummate ease in a conditional jockeys' event at Uttoxeter before following up less than a week later at Chepstow. The six-year-old has to contend with a 14lb higher mark, but the manner of those victories suggest a hike of that nature is fully justified and further progression appears likely. El Gavilan relished heavy ground when winning over C&D earlier in the month and is noted along with There Runs Mary.

ATR VERDICT: GWENNIE MAY JEM bounced back to form when appreciating the return to front-running tactics at Lingfield earlier in the month and Olly Murphy's gelding has every chance of backing up that performance under a 7lb penalty. Bobbi's Beauty is likely to benefit from a drop back in trip after a below-par display at Warwick, but the main danger could prove to be El Rojo Grande following his Market Rasen success a fortnight ago.

Top Tip: GWENNIE MAY JEM (3)

Watch out for: EL ROJO GRANDE (7)
